Major Olmsted Suggests Beatification for "Sun" Tobacco Fund Inventor.

LETTERS FROM TRENCHES

Many a Welcome Pipeful or a Cigarette Came to Men After Battle.

"A. P. O. 748, American Ex. Porce, "19 July, '18. oft was a very great pleasure to be one of the beneficiaries of the Schulte seres through THE SUN Tobacco Fund. "The cigarettes provided the proper selace and under the conditions seemed like a whiff of Little Old New York that "As time advances the wise conception of whoever originated THE BUN Tobacco Fund assumes greater propor-tions. If the boys over here could vote on the proposition it would be unan-imous for his beatification.

"EDWARD OLMSTED, Major." Additional evidence, this, of the pleasas the soldiers from all other parts well as the soldlers from all other parts of the United States, receive the smokes sent to France through The Sun Tobacco Fund. Major Olmsted is one of the big town's own. He joined Squadron A as a private back in May, 1888, and rose, step by step, to the post he new occupies, Major of one of the regiments fighting the world's enemy Over There. His card is addressed to D. A. schulte, president of A. Schulte, Inc.

Message to Judge Gary. "One of the dirst over," who doesn't sign his name, expresses his gratitude in this message to Judge Elbert H. Gary: "The smokes could not be beat and

The smokes could not be beat and you have many thankful friends here in France. We all sure can lick the liuns with that friendship."

Many other fund contributors are addressed as friends in other carde just received from grateful recipients. Among them is the Hilltop Club, to which Thomas L. Hensley, who describes himself as a Texas Ranger with Company H. Fourth Infantry, writes as follows:

'Here's thanking you from the bottom of my heart for your kindness in fur-nishing us fighting men at the front with the generous public back home.

"Here's thanking you again and hoping that it won't be long before all us boys will be back on home soil and able to buy their own smokes."

Private Pours Out Thanks. Private George J. Crowley of Com-pany B, Sixth Engineers, writes this to the men of Post & McCord, who are gen-

"May I offer you my heartlest thanks for your kind generosity in contributing what I consider the greatest of gifts to a soldier at the front? You may rest assured that you and THE SUN Tobacco Fund have made at least one boy com-fortable and happy with his pipe and tohacco. I have seen many tobaccoless days since coming up to the line, but am happy now and willing to forget them. You have made a lifelong friend in me."

The following is addressed to Mra.
